

This small park is set back from the street between Arkell and Ingram in a dense wooded area that offers plenty of shade in the mornings. The notable and beloved fire engine may be removed in the near future to be replaced with a more modern adventure toy. Children can practice balancing on the large teeter-totters or hanging from the hexagon dome.

PLAYGROUND NAME	Arkell
NEIGHBOURHOOD	Arkell
NUMBER OF SWINGS	2 regular swings and one baby swing
NUMBER OF SLIDES	One stand-alone large slide, one small slide attached to the fire truck
TYPE OF SURFACE	Sand surface, wooded surround
NUMBER OF DIGGING TOYS	1
NUMBER OF RIDE-ON TOYS	Four teeter-totters
TYPE OF CLIMBING STRUCTURES	Fire truck frame and hexagon dome for climbing in and over
AGE CONSIDERATIONS	Preschool to school age
WASHROOMS	None
PICNIC TABLES AND/OR BENCHES	One table, one bench
GARBAGE CANS	1
LAWN AREA NEARBY	None
SKATING RINK NEARBY	None
SLIDING HILL NEARBY	None
FOOD SERVICES NEARBY	15 minute walk to groceries, pub, pizza/Chinese takeaway
TENNIS COURTS NEARBY	None
VOLLEYBALL COURT NEARBY	None
BASKETBALL COURT NEARBY	None
PARKING – Parking Lot or On Street	Off street parking adjacent to the park
BOAT RAMPS NEARBY	None
TRAILS/PATHWAYS NEARBY	Accessible from Ingram and connects to Arkell trail system
UNIQUE FEATURES	Bell ringers on the fire engine are a favourite.