What goes where?
Curbside Recycling Guide

Whitehorse — THE WILDERNESS CITY

Blue Bin (mixed containers)
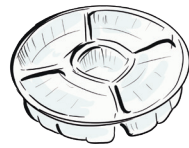

Clamshells	Plastic trays	Plastic jars	Blister packs
Plastic containers	Shampoo & soap bottles	Laundry detergent containers	Plant trays
Jar lids	Aluminum trays	Steel cans	Cookie tins
Milk jugs $	Milk and juice cartons $	Plastic drinking bottles $	Aluminum cans $
Non beverage cartons	Spray bottles (no butane or paint)
Yellow Bag (mixed paper)
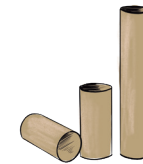

|
Mixed paper	Toilet paper tubes	Boxboard
Corrugated cardboard	Prescription paper bags	Shoe boxes
Coffee trays	Egg cartons	Take-out paper bags
Take out food boxes	Paper cups and bowls	Aluminum foil boxes
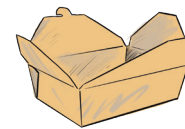

If food-soiled, please put in your compost cart.
Large cardboard recycling must be flattened and no larger than 91 cm x 91 cm. Place neatly beside the bin.

MIXED PAPER

$ Return to a refundables depot for refund.

Illustrations by Yukon Graphic Recording © 2024

Helpful hints
Curbside Recycling Guide

How to prepare your recycling for pick up:

Rinse containers

Remove lids

Flatten materials

Place bins at the curb or street edge before 7 am.
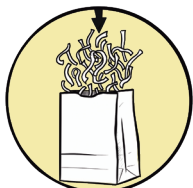

Put shredded paper into the yellow bag

Flatten materials

Cut down large boxes

➔ Large cardboard recycling must be flattened and no larger than 91 cm x 91 cm Place neatly beside the bin.

Items that are not properly sorted and set out may not be collected.

➔ Each home is entitled to two blue bins and two yellow bags.

MIXED PAPER

1 m

Whitehorse THE WILDERNESS CITY
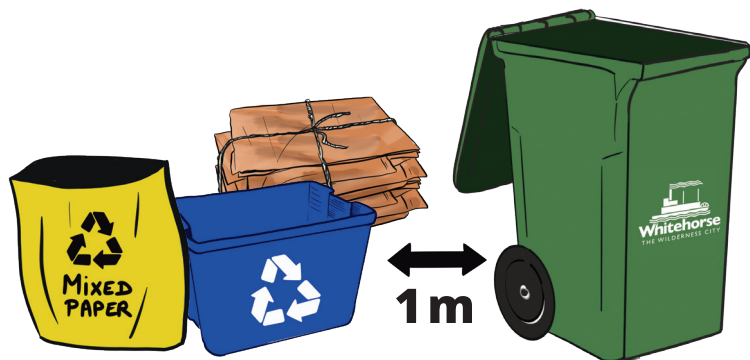

For service related inquiries, contact:

Whitehorse Blue Bin Recycling

Email: curbside.help@ whitehorsebluebins.com

Phone: 867-687-1615

WHAT GOES WHERE

Download on the App Store

GET IT ON Google Play

whitehorse.ca/sort

Not Accepted

Flexible plastics, styrofoam and glass are not accepted as curbside recycling.
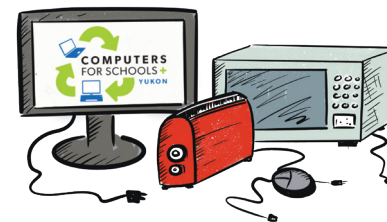

Glass can be brought to Raven ReCentre

Refundables

Bring your cans, bottles, milk jugs, etc. to a refundables depot.

$

Electronic Waste

Bring to Raven ReCentre's E-Waste Depot.

COMPUTERS FOR SCHOOLS + YUKON

Household Hazardous Waste

Bring HHW to the Waste Management Facility.

Saturdays 9 am to 4 pm

Find out more at: whitehorse.ca/hhw

PROPANE